Surgery and Library Publication

Unity Health Toronto's Library Services would like to congratulate Information Specialist Teruko Kishibe who collaborated with the Surgery Department to publish "Early urinary catheter removal after rectal surgery: systematic review and meta-analysis" in the BSJ Society Journal. Congratulations to all involved with this successful publication!

June is National Indigenous History Month

National Indigenous History Month honours the history, heritage and diversity of Indigenous peoples in Canada. Dr. Janet Smylie is a leader & prolific author in the field of Indigenous health from MAP Centre for Urban Health Solutions and Well Living House. Her work focuses on addressing the health inequities of Indigenous peoples through applied health services research. Find Dr. Smylie's publications here: bit.ly/smyliepubs

Trans Health Resource Guides

Happy Pride Month! Did you know each of our resource guides features information, education, and resources to care for transgender and gender non-conforming folks? Visit any of our resource guides or check out this example on the Senior's Health guide: bit.ly/seniortranshealth

COVID-19 Resource Guide To keep up to date on COVID-19 resources please see our guide: bit.ly/SMHCOVID19.

New eBook Titles!

Library Services has acquired dozens of new eBooks to support your practice, learning, and research from wherever you're working. You can find a collection of these new title here and many more at librarysmh.ca. Do you have other titles suggestions? Please share requests for new ebook, journal, or database titles with your Information Specialist or through email at hslibrary@smh.ca

Book Consultations with an Information Specialist (NEW)

Not even a pandemic can keep us apart! To stay connected, the Library has developed a new booking solution allowing you to schedule a Zoom or phone meeting with any of our Information Specialists. To book an appointment or consultation simply visit our new and improved contacts page and select the staff with whom you wish to schedule a meeting. Please direct questions to hslibrary@smh.ca. We look forward to hearing from you!
