COVID-19 Resource Guide

Now that we have entered the 4th wave, Library Services would like to remind all staff, physicians, and learners about the COVID-19 resource guide, a curated source for online resources to support your information needs, best practice guidelines, and new resources as they're made available. This guide is continuously updated, and can be found at bit.ly/SMHCOVID19

Article not available?

Are you looking for an article or paper that isn't in our collection? Don't pay out of pocket! Instead, use our interlibrary loan (ILL) service. We will find and obtain the article for you using our network of partner libraries throughout North America. Articles are delivered within 3 to 5 business days and our ILL service is open to all staff, students, volunteers, and physicians across our network. Visit the ILL request form here: <https://bit.ly/ILL4U>
